

Flash Art

March 2007

SAN FRANCISCO

SECA Art Award

This edition's SECA Art Award winners are Sarah Cain, Kota Ezawa, Amy Franceschini, Mitzi Pederson, and Leslie Shows. Originally started in 1967, the SECA art award (Society for the Encouragement of Contemporary Art) is one the Bay Area's most prestigious awards, which is awarded to a group of emerging Bay Area artists every two years. It comes with a group exhibition at SFMOMA, an accompanying catalogue and a cash prize. Recent SECA Art Award recipients Mitzi Pederson, Untitled (ten years later or maybe just one) (detail), 2005. Cinderblocks, glitter and glue, dimensions variable.

include Rosana Castrillo Díaz, Simon Evans, Shaun O'Dell and Josephine Taylor (2004); John Bankston, Andrea Higgins, Chris Johanson and Will Rogan (2002); Rachael Neubauer and Kathryn Van Dyke (2000); Chris Finley, Laurie Reid, Gay Outlaw, and Rigo 98 (1998); and D-L Alvarez, Anne Appleby and Barry McGee (1996).

